

Sakie, William

I was born December 14, 1983 in Yekepa, Republic of Liberia. My parents are Rev. Joseph and Mrs. Elizabeth Sackie. My father was a pastor for the Assemblies of God church. My father died when I was young. He always gave me good Godly advice up to his death. However, I did not heed his advice, and at the age of 16 I began to live a very bad and immoral life style. My parent's Godly advice was always in my conscience.

In October 2003 I was invited to the Victory UPC by a friend but made excuses and did not go. After several invitations, I was convicted in my heart to attend the church November 2003. Pastor Deborah Weyhee preached on Immorality in the Church. When I heard this message I was lead by the Spirit of God to go to the altar. They laid hands on me, prayed, and I felt the power of God for the first time. I decided from that point on to separate myself from the world. On May 16, 2004 I was baptized in Jesus Name by Brother Joseph F. Kamara, and received the Holy Ghost in October. God began to use me as an evangelist. God used me in the local church and community. I knew I needed to be taught the Word of God so I began to pray for funds to attend Bible College. While waiting, one of our churches that had been destroyed by the war needed someone to oversee it. I told the presbyter I could take care of the church, with God's help. I was assigned there as the pastor and God is blessing His work.

To God be the glory, I am now attending the Maranatha Bible College. Thanks to all of you in America that have made my dream come true. I promise you that with your help, I will do even more to spread this Apostolic Truth.
